

April 2017

Network News

Join our Mailing List

QuickPoll

Secondary Caries

Secondary caries, also known as recurrent caries, is defined as a new caries lesion affecting the tooth immediately adjacent to an existing dental restoration. Based on clinical research, secondary caries has been reported as the primary reason for failure and replacement of dental restorations, affecting the longevity of the operative treatment. The network is interested in knowing the impact and management of secondary caries in your practice.

Please respond to the 5-question poll regarding secondary caries.

To continue the conversation, go to "Quick Poll Results" in the Member Forum.